

Business in Brussels

At the heart of Europe, Brussels is easily accessible from the main European capitals thanks to an excellent transportation network. The city is a perfect gateway to the whole European market.

About Brussels

The European institutions located in Brussels generate business and employment in various sectors of activity. The Brussels economy is dynamic, diversified and highly export-oriented. The labour force is also highly-qualified, skilled and knowledgeable.

In addition to the traditional activities, such as transport, construction, food and consumer goods, Brussels also exports high-quality services in innovative sectors.

Brussels is a very multicultural city and is an ideal test market for foreign companies wishing to access the European marketplace.

Invest in Brussels

Our service Inward Investment can inform you about the various assets of the European capital. Our representative office in London can advise and assist you in establishing a branch or subsidiary in Brussels.

Directory of Brussels exporting companies

Our extensive database of Brussels-based exporting companies allows you to get in touch with companies from your sectors of activity, interested in developing international trade links.